Attorneys for United States of America

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)	CASE NO. 22-mj-71330
Plaintiff,)	[PROPOSED] DETENTION ORDER
v.) CHRISTOPHER REYES COLIN,) Defendant.)

On October 14, 2022, defendant Christopher Reyes Colin was charged by Complaint with Conspiracy to Distribute Methamphetamine, in violation of 21 U.S.C. 846 and 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(C). Mr. Colin was arrested in Bakersfield and had his initial appearance on the Complaint in the Eastern District of California.

This matter came before the Court on January 12, 2023, for a detention hearing. The defendant was present by Zoom and consented to proceed by videoconference and was represented by Patrick Aguirre. Assistant United States Attorney Maya Karwande appeared for the government. Pretrial Service prepared a report and an addendum report in advance of the hearing and recommended that the defendant be detained as a risk of flight. At the hearing, counsel submitted proffers and arguments

1 regarding detention.

2 Upon consideration of the facts, proffers and arguments presented, and for the reasons stated on
3 the record, the Court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of 4 conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the person as required. Accordingly, the defendant
5 must be detained pending trial in this matter.

6 The present order supplements the Court's findings and order at the detention hearing and serves
7 as written findings of fact and a statement of reasons as required by Title 18, United States Code,
8 Section 3142(i)(1). As noted on the record, the Court makes the following findings as the bases for its 9 conclusion: The defendant has significant ties to Mexico – he is a citizen of Mexico, his parents live in 10 Mexico, and he reported to Pretrial Services in the Eastern District of California that in the past three 11 years he has visited his parents in Mexico three times. The defendant has some ties to this district but 12 they are not substantial. The defendant therefore has an incentive to flee and a realistic place to go. The 13 defendant is not close with either of the proposed bond signors, and the Court does not believe either
14 would exert moral suasion over him. One of the proposed bond signors knows the defendant's parents
15 but barely knows the defendant at all. The other has known him for about a year. These are not 16 meaningful relationships. These findings are made without prejudice to the defendant's right to seek 17 review of defendant's detention, or file a motion for reconsideration if circumstances warrant it.

18 Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i), IT IS ORDERED THAT:

19 1. The defendant be, and hereby is, committed to the custody of the Attorney General for 20 confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving
21 sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

22 2. The defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
23 and

24 3. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government,
25 the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined shall deliver the 26 defendant to an authorized United States Marshal for the purpose of any appearance in connection with a
27 court proceeding.

28 IT IS SO ORDERED.
